This morning, Major Collins of A-2 called on me. He said that he was unaware that the meeting which Captain Wev had arranged had been postponed until tomorrow morning at 9:30. However, since he was here, I agreed to go over the whole subject of intelligence investigation with him. He indicated that he had been assigned to Captain Wev, and that he was to go to Germany to see to it that appropriate investigations were made with respect to the ten applicants of the Air Forces. I explained the major problem, the interest of the Department, and gave him the names of English and Cummings in Germany for liaison, and Allison of ES, Clattenberg of EPD, and Bradford of FC for further contact here. I suggested that he keep in touch with me with respect to interrogations and surveillance in the United States.

Collins said that he had been in counter-intelligence in Germany and he had the feeling that the present program had many dangers which had possibly not been fully explained to the responsible officers of the Air Forces. He proposed to confer with a Colonel Brown and with a General, in charge at Wright Field, and indicated that he would request the assignment of at least three good CIC interrogators to go with him to Germany. I told him that I would let him see a VDI instruction prepared here after I got a copy of it, and I gave him a reference to the FEA report on external security.

Collins said that he would report this conversation to Captain Wev and then would proceed to see the State Department officials mentioned. Tomorrow he would go to Wright Field, he said, and would see me again upon his return.
